At the close the vast concourse of people that had assembled on the ground, gathered at the stand in the forest, where Elder William Hercey preached from the text "and yet there is room," 14th chapter and part of the 22d verse of Luke. Elder G. W. Hill preached the 12 o'clock sermon. Elder J. Sole concluded the services. While the congregation sang an appropriate hymn a collection was taken up, amounting to $10.65. The parting hand was taken while the congregation sung "Am I a soldier of the Cross," &c.

W. S. FRINK, Clerk.

APPENDIX.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PERIODICALS.

Dear brethren, the great need of our churches is information in regard to the work of our denomination. This information can be obtained only from our religious papers. We recommend the Baptist Courier, published at Greenville, S. C., the Biblical Recorder, published at Raleigh, N. C., and Kind Words, published in Macon, Ga., as papers worthy of our patronage. We believe that the heads of families especially, should take one religious paper and encourage their families to read them. In that way they will learn what the great Baptist brotherhood is doing all over our land, and moreover they will be stimulated to do more in every way for the cause of Christ. Those churches which read our papers will give most to the spread of the gospel.

A. M. NOBLE,
C. L. POWELL,
J. M. CONERLY,
Committee.

REPORT ON PRAYER MEETINGS.

The duty of prayer is plainly taught in the scriptures, and perhaps few Christian duties are more neglected. As a means to increase a growth in grace, it is indispensable. It cultivates a spirit of humble devotion and dependence on God, increasing faith and love, and fills the soul with joy and peace, and prepares us the better to endure the trials and perform the duties of life.

"Restraining prayer we cease to fight,
Prayer makes the Christian's armor bright.
And Satan trembles when he sees,
The weakest saint upon his knees."

W. S. MCCASKILL,
G. W. HILL,
E. D. JOHNSON,
Committee.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

Your committee on Education report that it is our indispensable duty to encourage education among the people. The masses should seek to educate the rising generation that the young may be prepared to take the places of the old brethren when they are gone. Progress is the watch-word of to day. Other sections are awakening to the great importance of education and so ought we. Especially should our young ministers be encouraged to seek all the knowledge within their reach. Where it is practicable we recommend that they attend school awhile, and better prepare themselves to preach the gospel and contend for the faith once delivered to the saints. Other denominations have educated ministers, and in order to keep pace with them we must educate.

We recommend the Ashpole Institute located in Robeson county, fifteen miles from Fair Bluff, as a suitable school for young men and ladies. Prof. Ivey is a whole-souled Baptist, and gives, free of cost, tuition to young ministers. He is now giving tuition to young Bro. J. O. Blanton of this Association, and he is making commendable progress. We also recommend Furman University in Greenville, S. C., and Wake Forest College in North Carolina, to those who wish to take a collegiate course.

J. H. BLANTON,
C. L. POWELL,
E. D. JOHNSON,
Committee.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

Your committee report that our effort to reclaim a lost world, to raise mankind from that state of degradation and misery in which they have fallen by sin, to open the prison doors of habit and sinful indulgence and set the prisoner free, is an indispensable christian duty. When we take into consideration the wide spread and alarming evil of the use of alcoholic liquors as a beverage, the untold suffering and misery caused by it, and the thousands brought to fill a drunkard's grave and endure a drunkard's hell, Christianity weeps, and the church of Christ should blush when we consider the indifference and apathy manifested by professors of religion in regard to this great evil.

We would, therefore, urgently recommend that members of the church and of society in general, abandon the use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage, and use their influence, both by precept and example, to discourage its use.

Respectfully submitted,

R. J. LONG,
WM. HUGHES,
WM. BOYD,
Committee.

REPORT ON MINISTERIAL QUALIFICATION AND SUPPORT.

Your committee are of the opinion that the qualification of a minister of the gospel of Jesus Christ is fully set forth in the Testament of our Lord and Saviour, both by precept and example; from which we understand that the prime qualification for a minister is the gift of the Holy Spirit in his own heart, who will enable him to make the sacrifice incident to ministerial life, that he may be consecrated to the work which God has assigned him. And as the workman is worthy of his hire, we feel it our duty as churches and as individuals to support the ministry which He has ordained among us.

MOSES PRIDGEN,
E. D. JOHNSON,
W. D. MARTIN,
Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MINISTERIAL EXAMINATION.

Your committee beg leave to report that we have had before us aspirants to the gospel ministry, Brethren A. B. Roe, H. C. Ammons, J. E. McCormick, G. W. Harrelson, Stephen H. Thompson, A. W. Carter and A. G. Stocks. On a careful examination we do recommend the two first named brethren for ordination, when they shall be called to the pastoral care of a church or churches. And while we are pleased with the Christian experience and talents for preaching the gospel of the other brethren, we do recommend that they continue in their present capacity for one more year.

Respectfully submitted,

A. M. NOBLE,
J. W. GORE,
W. S. MCCASKILL,
Committee.

REPORT ON SPECIAL CHANGES.

Your committee beg to report, that from the gatherings, from church letters, our hearts are saddened by the removal from our midst of so many during the past year. Thirty-one of our number have been called to pass over the cold Jordan of death, and while our hearts have been caused to bleed with sorrow, we do rejoice that our loss is their eternal gain.

Respectfully submitted,

N. MILLIKIN,
N. WHITE,
A. INZOR,
Committee.

REPORT ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Your committee are pleased to report favorably. The cause seems to be engaging more of the attention of Christians generally than at any former period of our history. It is truly gratifying to report Sunday Schools in many of our churches, notwithstanding several have made no report. Your committee most earnestly recommend every church member to feel it his duty and high privilege to be a member of the Sunday School. Your committee also recommend the formation of a Sunday School Convention in this Association.

Respectfully submitted,

J. M. CONERLY,
R. D. BEST,
R. J. LONG,
Committee.

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

We nominate as corresponding messengers from this Association to the following Associations, viz :

To Pee Dee—Elder A. M. Noble, H. C. Ammons, J. M. Conerly.

To Cedar Creek—Elder J. M. Conerly, A. B. Roe, W. H. Hambilton.
To Cape Fear—Elder J. H. Blanton, A. A. Edwards, J. Sole.
To Lumber River, Colored—Elders A. M. Noble, J. A. Mintz, R. G. Butler.
To Gray's Creek, Colored—Elders R. J. Long, R. Cribb, A. N. Brown.

Respectfully submitted,

S. H. THOMPSON,
K. A. GRAHAM,
J. S. VAUGHT,
Committee.

REPORT ON MISSION.

Your committee feel that the command of our blessed Saviour to "preach the gospel to every creature," has not sufficiently impressed the hearts of God's people. We would, therefore, urge a more devoted effort on the part of pastors and churches for the accomplishment of the great work committed to us, and the hearty co-operation of all those in the support of our missionary organization, by which it is earnestly hoped that the destitution at home and abroad may be speedily supplied with the preached word. We would recommend to all of the churches the duty of regular contributions to the State Mission Board and to the Foreign Mission Board.

Respectfully submitted,

G. W. HILL,
R. J. LONG,
A. A. EDWARDS,
Committee.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS.

That this Association express the high sense of its appreciation, and do hereby tender its sincere thanks for the very hospitable manner in which it has been entertained by the church and citizens of the community.

REPORT OF FINANCE COMMITTEE.

Your committee beg leave to report that the amount sent up by the churches as Associational Fund amount to $63.80, which amount we have paid over to the Treasurer.

Respectfully submitted,

J. H. BLANTON,
J. L. POWELL,
R. D. BEST,
N. MILLIKIN,
JESSE LANCASTER,
Committee.
